Using the ballot pack allows your group to vote and elect who receives the student awards in your academy. This avoids a situation where students think instructors are playing favourites or a fellow student is a teachers pet. Using ballots are effective in team building too and empower your members as part of your academies team.  Student Ballot Pack Tick if required Includes Instructions £2.99 <input type="checkbox"/> 1 Ballot Pad 25 voting slips Poster  Student and Instructors Awards are issued to those who attend the Gala Banquette on Sat 24/05/08 at 7pm at no extra cost. <h3>CHILDREN'S AWARDS</h3>  Child's M/A's Award Pack Tick if required Includes Instructions £2.99 <input type="checkbox"/> 20 Registration Slips Poster  Children's Awards are issued to the attendees of the Action On Film, Children's Martial Arts Awards Event on Sun 24/05/08 at 5pm in The Bronte Suite, Hilton Hotel, Bradford.

Objectives of this ceremony:

Raising the profile and awareness of martial arts within communities are essential for the survival of martial arts. Martial arts has an active role in many community areas ranging through health, fitness, discipline and self-defence. Saying thank you is a noble cause to inspire instructors and martial artists and encourage them to keep developing and contributing to communities. It is important the market is big enough so instructors don't compete for students from each other and these ceremonies help make the market grow and ensure we all have our fair share of students.
